Interior Yacht Crew, You Now Have A New Port Of Call

Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel; One Of The Cap's Flagship Locations, Is Ready To Welcome You By Opening Its Doors As The New Superb Location For Triple S Consultancy's EXCELLENCE IN SERVICE Training Courses.

The Cap d'Antibes beach hotel and Triple S Consultancy have fostered a collaborative relationship to provide quality hospitality training to the yachting industry by offering all EXCELLENCE IN SERVICE modules this September.

This innovative partnership aims to provide new opportunities for hospitality individuals, looking to invest in their career by learning the finer points of guest service and establishing a sound knowledge of F&B. Deliberately small classes; a maximum of 10 students, provides a more interactive and personalized approach to learning. As a result, a sense of community is instilled through an exchange of knowledge, experience and teamwork of all participants.

The Cap d'Antibes beach hotel aim to provide their guests with the exquisite feeling of being truly privileged. Triple S Consultancy are thrilled to team up with such a professionally run hotel where students are able to refine their service skills by immersing themselves in practical training in the various locations of this prestigious hotel.

To give our students the best possible EXCELLENCE IN SERVICE-training, Triple S Consultancy has teamed up with professional trainers who have received many honours and awards in their respective fields, establishing a high profile for themselves. Our trainers will instruct and equip students with the industry best practices, creating a talent pool of professionals for the hospitality sector. "It is important to build and maintain a skilled and competent workforce for the yachting industry," says Peter Vogel, managing director for Triple S Consultancy.

The Malta based EXCELLENCE IN SERVICE hospitality training school is a new concept for the South of France thanks to Triple S' partnership with Cap d'Antibes beach hotel. Be one of the first to train at this new and stunning, contemporary hotel this September.

Registration for all modules is now open. Applicants can log on to www.tripleSconsultancy.com for more details on the below four modules.
